Auction Rules

Upon entry, you will be given a bid number and a program with information about the auction items. To bid, you must have a bid number.

Please hold your paddle high until your number has been called out. Items will be awarded to the highest bidder.

All items are sold "AS IS." The Home Trust neither warrants nor represents and shall in no event be responsible for the correctness of description, genuineness, authorship, origin or condition of the goods and/or services purchased at the auction.

All Sales are Final! There will be no refunds or exchanges.

Auction "winner" must schedule mutually acceptable times for trips, parties, dinners and other services with the donor.

The highest "winning" bidder may pay and collect their auction item or certificate at the check-out tables any time after 7:30 p.m. Payment may be made by cash, check or Visa/MasterCard.

Auction items are awarded to one purchaser only. Those who wish to share or split an auction item must work out individual payments on their own.

Following payment, volunteers will bring items to cashiers' tables so that purchasers may take them home.

The Home Trust reserves the right to add or withdraw, without notice, any
